LONG TRAIL SCHOOL ANNOUNCES KOUWENHOVEN JOINS BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Dorset---Gerrit Kouwenhoven, longtime resident of the area and friend of Long Trail School, has returned to its Board of Trustees. He was a member of the Board from 1988-1998. Kouwenhoven has worked with and for a number of organizations and institutions in the Manchester area. Long Trail's Board is pleased to have his expertise and vision to assist their work.

Kouwenhoven's associations include Merck Forest and Farmland Center, United Counseling Service, Preservation Trust of Vermont, Rutland Area Visiting Nurse and Hospice Association, and the First Congregational Church of Manchester. Additionally, he has been affiliated with the Manchester Lions Club, the Dorset Theatre Festival, the Dorset Players, the College of Saint Joseph, the Dorset Nursing Association, and Pine Cobble School. Kouwenhoven is known to many for his work at Hildene and Ethan Allen Community College.

Kouwenhoven lives in Dorset with his wife Ellie. They have a son Derek, a daughter Kirsten (who attended Long Trail from 1985-1988), and three grandchildren.
