LONG TRAIL SCHOOL PARENT ASSOCIATION GOLF TOURNAMENT A SUCCESS!

Dorset--- On September 21 at The Golf Club at the Equinox, wonderful fall weather greeted competitors in the Long Trail School Parents Association golf tournament in honor of Bing Hunter, who was passionate about education and Long Trail School. All proceeds benefited the scholarship fund. The grand prize was awarded to John Sobel, Chris Fowler, Rob Hues, and Mike Porrier for first low gross (59). Second low gross (66) was won by Rick Jenkins, Doug Wood, John Kolb, and Lou Midura. First low net (55) was awarded to Merrick Counsell, Brian Kelly, Missy Rice, and Kevin Murphy. Second low net (58) was awarded to Charlie Schubert, James Ball, Michael Schozer, and Adrian Schozer. The longest drive was won by Jeff Swedberg (men) and Missy Rice (women). Closest to the pin was awarded to Tim Smith (men) and Judy Geriak (women). Smith was given the Joseph Amedeo Rizio Precision Short Game Trophy for his accuracy.

John Sobel and his team were awarded the grand prize at the LTPA golf tournament.

The Long Trail School Parents Association is grateful to Berkshire Bank, Casella Waste Systems, Hand Motors, L&E Distributors, Inc. Boards Head Brand, all the businesses, the participants and the parent volunteers for supporting their golf tournament.
