Please review the book fully. This sheet should be used for brainstorming and organizing ideas only. Be sure to use proper grammar, punctuation, and sentence and paragraph structure.

Paragraph #1: Provide a brief summary of the book. Include information such as major characters, location, and time period in order for your reader to get “hooked” into the story. Do NOT include the ending as you want your readers to be interested enough to go read the book themselves.

Paragraph #2: Give at least three (3) reasons that you enjoyed the book or that it fell below your expectations. Be certain to not only give the reasons but to explain them with a sentence or two.

Paragraph #3: Describe the kind of audiences that would appreciate this book. Include why this book would be enjoyed by these readers.
